Delaware Chapter

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Annual Meeting
Tuesday, April 16, 7:30 p.m.
Wilcastle Center

Agenda: William R. Meek, Executive Director, Philadelphia Area-Wide Council, and a member of Philadelphia ACLU Board of Directors, will speak on URBAN UNREST -- 1968

Spencer Coxe, Executive Director, Philadelphia ACLU, will speak on RECENT ACLU HAPPENINGS -- THE NATIONAL SCENE

Jacob Kreshtool, President Delaware Chapter, ANNUAL REPORT

Election of Board of Directors for coming year.

The nominating committee (Jacob Kreshtool, 402 Beneficial Bldg., Wilmington 19801; Robert Secor, 4600 Weldin Rd., Wilmington 19803; and Jane Bennett, 108 Haverford Rd., Wilmington 19803) welcomes suggestions. If you would like, or know someone who would like, to serve as a director, please send a postcard to one of these three.

Our two guest speakers will make this a particularly informative meeting. It is also your annual opportunity to participate actively in your Delaware Chapter. Please mark the date on your calendar, and plan to bring at least one friend who is interested in ACLU.

ACTIVITIES REPORT

Continuing Activities

March 1968

Revised Delaware Criminal Code: ACLU has been represented at public hearings in Dover on the following sections of the proposed code: Capital Punishment (Arlen B. Mekler), Whipping Post (Thomas G. Hughes), Abortion (Ocie Lindh), Sex Offenses (Arlen B. Mekler), Riot Control (Sheldon N. Sandler and Richard Yoder). Their statements were reported in the press.

Academic Freedom: ACLU is continuing to follow the case of University of Delaware professors concerning restraints on academic freedom.

A group of University of Delaware students attended the 2/29 board meeting to ask for advice about proposed regulations which would have required pre-censorship of literature distributed at the Student Union

Anti-Riot Statute: Preliminary hearing on test case is scheduled for 3/26 in Wilmington Municipal Court.
